YOUR COACHES

Judith Van Hoof - CEO

Judith is a transformation leader and has been working in the change and transformation field for over 15 years. With a master of Science degree in Organisation Sociology, understanding processes and people is her expertise.

She has guided big and small organisations in their Digital and Agile transformations and is an inspirational trainer and speaker.

Joan van Hoof - Advisor and Coach

Joan is a warm, very experienced and authentic senior leader.

In recent years she focussed on guiding management with her open and clear way of communicating and positive energy. She specializes in creating engagement that helps solve management challenges, enabling organisations to activate the potential of their senior employees.

With the demographic shifting towards a more senior workforce, managers need to be ready to cater to these employees' needs, and Joan believes that, with the challenge of filling vacancies, activating the senior employees is the key!
